REFLECTION QUESTIONS

Respond to the following questions in a 2- to 3-page essay format and submit to your professor for grading.

1. Compare and contrast the "greed of the 80s" with the financial greed we observe in our current times.
2. Discuss Gordon Gekko's "slash-and burn" methods of conducting financial business. Are his methods what it takes to succeed in business, particularly as it relates to the investments and the stock market? If so, why? If not, what method of conducting business might be more prudent to short- and long-term success?
3. Consider and editorialize on the ethical implications of prioritizing money and success over family, friends and relationships.
